

HOCKEY HALL of FAME

DIVERSITY IN HOCKEY PROGRAM

REDEFINING SPORT

The Hockey Hall of Fame Diversity in Hockey Program utilizes these four Principles of Diversity – allyship, embracing change, equity, and respect – to teach and empower youth from a sports and social perspective.

Presented by the Hockey Hall of Fame's lead on diversity, Kevin Yearwood, sessions will spotlight the stories of ground-breakers, today's leaders, and issues challenging inclusiveness in hockey. Each presentation is tailorable to your region, demographic and/or requested focus and is augmented through captivating photographs, videos, artifacts and first-person accounts.

CREATING SPACE FOR ALL TO PLAY

Hockey is a powerful communication tool that elicits conversation and can evoke positive change. As part of its mandate, the Hockey Hall of Fame is entrusted to represent all facets of the game as well as educate and inspire its audience. The lessons learned through history are profound. As are today's storylines. Combining the past with present-day headlines will provide an ideal platform for today's youth to examine, understand and champion diversity.
